

Palais Royal E. O. T. W. S.

This End-of-the-week Sale is largely instrumental in making the Palais Royal Millinery so famous. It means a great sacrifice of profits—but it also means an ever new stock and an ever increasing army of patrons, whose faith in the Palais Royal Millinery grows deeper rooted daily.

$6 Hats $5, and $10 Hats $8.

This is to be tomorrow's program. Regular patrons know—but newcomers to Washington have to learn—that owing to the services of expert milliners engaged the year around, and to millinery materials here in wholesale quantities, the Palais Royal Hats at $6 and $10 are infinitely superior to the average.

98c Tomorrow for Any $1.50 or $2 Sailor.

The Ultra-fashionable Black Rough Straw Sailors, the correct Knox shape. Take elevator to second floor and help yourself—any one of these Sailors, marked $1.50 or $2, is to be 98c tomorrow.

Ribbons Also on This Second Floor.

Some price surprises—35c a yard for 45c quality Velvet Ribbons, 2½ inches wide. . . 19c instead of 25c yard for 5-inch-wide Messaline Ribbons, plain colors and Dresden effects. . . 39c instead of 50c yard for 7-inch-wide Taffeta Ribbons. . . 75c yard for $1 Embossed Sash Ribbons, and 39c yard for Hair Ribbons to match.

74c to $1.50 Gloves, 69c, $1.19, $1.33.

But Only From 8 A.M. to 1 P.M.

Not only less prices—but less crowding during these morning hours. The Long White Silk Gloves, usually 74c—$1 elsewhere—are to be 69c. . . The Long French Gloves, black, white and colors, to be $1.19, instead of $1.25. . . The New $1.50 Gossamer Silk Gloves, through which the rings show, are to be $1.33.

Best of Best White Gloves for State Occasions.

The best of best White Silk Gloves are made in France; 16-button length, usually $2.75 pair, are here at $2.50; the 12-button length, usually $2, are here at $1.50. The best White Kid Gloves are $3 for 12-buttons and $3.50 for 16 buttons.

Immaculate Laundered Collars, 25c Value, 15c.

Blackstone Collars—"Ada," "Ruth," "Mme. Butterfly" and "Cherub."

The price is a great surprise, because these ultra-fashionable Laundered Collars are all pure linen and daintily embroidered; with detail superior to the best of rival 25c collars. The "Blackstone," at only 15c, is here in styles for the short, medium, and long neck, and all sizes are always in stock. A special counter devoted to these collars, in main aisle, in line with Eleventh street door and elevator.

The Tiny Fancy Bows, many new styles, to wear with the "Blackstone" collars; usually 15c to 25c. 13c Tomorrow. Tourist Ruching in box, eight (8) neck lengths in box; usually 12c to 18c. Tomorrow. 12c

Ascot Stocks, figured and plain madras, finished with pearl pin; usually 50c. Tomorrow. 39c Coat Sets of embroidered linen and Venetian Irish lace; new, best effects; usually $1. Tomorrow. 89c

P. K. Sailor Collars, with lace medallions and edge, for children; usually $1. Tomorrow. 75c Linen Coat Sets, embroidered in Venetian and polka dots; broad and narrow cuffs; usually 25c. Tomorrow. 19c

In the Fashionable Woman's Boudoir.

First comes the Union Suit—and note that it can be bought here tomorrow at only 25c. Then the Corset—and remember that French "P. D." Corsets are here at $1.29 instead of $2.25—and Domestic Corsets at 44c instead of one dollar. Then the Corset Cover—learn why 39c suffices instead of 75c. Then the Stockings—learn of filmy and silk-like Black Hose at 14c instead of 25c, and best 50c Stockings at 35c. Then the Petticoat—note that $1.98 will buy a dainty Lingerie Skirt worth up to $3. Learn of the details.

$1.29 for Genuine French "P. D." Corsets, worth $2.25. Fitted by an expert.

44c for American Corsets. Choice of short, medium and long lengths, all with front and side garters.

14c for Better-than-usual 25c Black Stockings—gossamer weight, with silk-like finish.

SPECIAL, 25c Worth 50c.

Swiss Ribbed Union Suits, vest with low neck and no sleeves; drawers with umbrella and tight knee styles. Also Children's Suits, with high neck and short sleeves.

35c for Best of 50c Stock-ings, with selvedge seam, double garter tops and high spliced heels.

39c instead of 50c to 75c for Corset Covers, trimmed front and back with fine laces, embroideries and ribbons.

$1.98 for Lingerie Petticoats, of white cambric, with deep circular flounce of laces and embroideries, run with silk ribbons.

Lambert's "Listerine"—Two (2) 25c Bottles for 25c.

And Other Best Toilet Articles at Price Surprises.

La Blache Face Powder, 25c. Mme. Given's Complexion Cream, 50c. B. & P. Wrinkle Eradicator, 50c. Malvina Cream, 50c jar. 35c. Cuticura Soap, box, 50c. Lettuce Cream and Soap and Tooth Paste for, 10c. Bath Mitts, 25c value, each. 6c

Magda Cold Cream, 50c jar. 40c. Woodbury's Facial Soap, 15c. Lusterite Nail Polish, cake. 15c. Pray's Roseline, 25c jar. 15c. Pure Bristole Hair Brushes, $1.00 value. 35c. Tooth Brushes, 15c value. 10c

Bath Sponges, 50c size. 30c. Bath Brushes, 50c size. 30c. Lundborg's Extract, 25c ounce. 15c. Pompeian Massage Cream, 50c size. 32c. Soudont Tooth Powder, 15c jar. 10c

White Parasols and Belts Embroidered to Match.

And Four Very Great Price Surprises.

The Parasols at 99c and Belts at 25c are machine embroidered, but they are wonderfully attractive, and at the prices quoted are rarely good bargains. The Parasols at $1.99 and Belts at 59c are works of art from the embroidery point of view, and the season's best bargains.

The Latest Veil From Paris Costs $1.50.

It's the aristocratic and exquisite Brown Veil that has been searched for in vain until now; $1.50 here—$2 in New York. Only 75c for usual $1 Veils, of Chantilly lace, 1½ yards long. Only 50c for best Chiffon Cloth Veils, in all colors, 1½ yards long.

1,000 Dozen Ladies' and Men's Initial Handkerchiefs.

The annual Summer importation—5c for Swiss and 11c for Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, with hand-embroidered initials. Note the little prices.

Parisian Jewelry at 98c—Worth Up to $5.

15c Instead of 25c Pound for Whiting's Writing Paper.

Both are aristocrats—the jewelry includes facsimiles of priceless Belt Buckles, Neck Festoons, Bracelets, Lavalieres, Hat, Collar and Belt Pins; last, but not least, the Shell Back Combs, in wondrous imitation of Italian hand-carving. See grand exposition of these new arrivals—in center aisle, facing G street entrance.

$1.48 for the Hat as Illustrated.

$2.98 for the Dress as Illustrated.

The Hat is one of many—also here are various Lingerie, Straw and Picture Hats in all the newest styles for both boys and girls. Values up to $2.50 at $1.48 for choice.

The Dress at $2.98 is positively worth $5—others are here of plain and dotted Swiss, India linen and Victoria lawn, with high and low necks and trimmings of best laces and embroideries. Sizes 2 to 14 years at $2.98 for choice.

Palais Royal, G & 11th.

MRS. AXSON WELL KNOWN

WOMAN ARRESTED TRYING TO SEE THE PRESIDENT.

Mrs. Rebecca Axson, forty-two years of age, came here from Chester, Pa., last night for the purpose of calling upon the President. She declared she had been directed by the Lord to come here, and she would probably have appeared at the White House this morning had not Policeman Nussbaum, met her at the Pennsylvania depot and learned the object of her visit.

The unfortunate woman was placed under arrest and sent to the house of detention. Mr. Axson was in Philadelphia yesterday looking for his missing wife, and when he reached home last night he found a message telling him she was in this city. He came here on an early train this morning and called upon the police for information. Mr. Axson stated that his wife was suffering from religious mania, and that he had been greatly worried over her disappearance.

Sanitary Officer Sroufe had the police surgeons examine Mrs. Axson, and they reported that her condition would admit of her return home with her husband. Later in the day the couple left here.

Miss Isabella Chase, who is also held at the house of detention, is probably to be taken to her home at Haverhill, Mass., tomorrow. She is known as "the woman in blue," and was arrested while attempting to gain an audience with the President.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

CHESTER, Pa., May 24.—Mrs. Rebecca Axson of this city, who was taken into custody at the White House in Washington, well-known here, is husband, James Axson, and eight children residing at 1021 Hyatt street.

Mr. Axson, who is a machinist at the Edgemoor printing works, states that about a week ago he noticed that his wife acted queerly, and when she asked him for money to take a trip to friends in Baltimore and Washington, he consented, believing that a visit would benefit her. Before departing, however, Mr. Axson attempted to a letter she had written commending him for his attitude on the anti-race suicide question.

Mr. Axson believes his wife's mental condition was affected by sermons which she heard delivered in several churches on the subject of gambling, declaring it was the duty of President Roosevelt to use his influence to suppress it.

With letters of recommendation from Chief of Police Williams and several prominent citizens of Chester, Mr. Axson has come to Washington to try to have his wife released from her custody so that he can place her in a sanitarium. Mrs. Axson's eldest child is seventeen years old.

OFFER FOR REALTY.

Possible Sale of the Halls of the Ancients Property.

Mr. Charles P. Stone, of the Stone & Fairfax Real Estate Company, is authority for the statement that an offer has been made to buy the property formerly known as the Hall of the Ancients, and situated on the south side of New York avenue about where H street crosses the thoroughfare. The H street station is about eighty feet, and the area about 14,500 square feet. The consideration mentioned is about $140,000, or nearly $10 per square foot.

Mr. Stone, in connection with Mr. Fairfax and Mr. Wardman, are the owners of the property. He says he does not know who the proposed purchasers of the property are, or what their purpose is, but he thinks they are merely buying for a speculation. As the sum mentioned is about the price asked for the property, it is inferred the offer will be accepted, although Mr. Stone said today that no definite conclusion had been thus far reached.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Real Estate Dealer Accused of Striking Madame Perreard.

Charged with making an assault on Madame Alice Perreard, wife of the proprietor of a French restaurant on E street northwest, Benjamin Minor, a real estate dealer, 621 15th street northwest, was arrested yesterday by Policeman Garrison of the first precinct and put up $50 collateral for his appearance in the Police Court this morning to answer the assault charge. As Madame Perreard, according to her physician, is still suffering from the shock and unable to appear in court today the trial was continued by Prosecuting Attorney Ralph Given until next Tuesday.

Madame Perreard stated to Prosecuting Attorney Given that she had been struck violently in the face by Minor Wednesday last. According to her explanation she was in the vestibule of her husband's place of business on E street Wednesday when Minor met her and began accusing her of interfering in his family affairs. Madame Perreard denied the accusation, and she says, Minor became excited and finally struck her in the face.

After she had recovered somewhat from the blow she went to the Police Court and procured a warrant for her alleged assailant.

WILLIAM REINBURG DEAD.

Employee of Government Printing Office Suddenly Expires.

Mr. William Reinburg, an employee of the government printing office, as announced in The Star, died very suddenly of acute indigestion while at his desk yesterday. Mr. Reinburg had been a life-long resident of Washington, was known as a man of unimpeachable character and held in the highest esteem by a host of friends, to whom his death yesterday came as a great shock. The deceased was a brother of John Reinburg and of the late Louis Reinburg, both of this city, and a brother-in-law of ex-Gov. Arthur L. Thomas of Utah. His wife and six children survive him.

The funeral will occur tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. Interment will be in Congressional cemetery.

Rodriguez Case Not Compromised.

Mrs. Mary A. Rodriguez, the widow of Dr. Jose L. Rodriguez, whose will was yesterday sustained by a jury, declares that no part of the estate was paid to Dr. Munoy, nephew, who contested the will. The only thing in the way of compromise, it is stated, was that Mr. Rodriguez agreed to relieve the contestant of the court costs and expenses which were nominal.

Rule to Show Cause Discharged.

Chief Justice Claiborne today discharged the rule to show cause issued against Charles M. Campbell at the instance of Orlando B. Blackburn, a New York broker. The court also declined to appoint a receiver for certain stock in the Intercontinental Correspondence University and the New Hotel, in which Blackburn claimed to have an interest. Attorney John Ridout represented Mr. Campbell.

Printers Play to a Tie.

Judd & Delweller's base ball team played an interesting game with Howard's ball team yesterday afternoon, the score being 7 to 7. The features of the game were the batting of Cassassa and Crawl and the fine pitching of Fisher. The Judd & Delweller team would like to arrange games with teams from department stores and printing offices. Address the manager, J. M. McCauley, 420 11th street northwest.

Celebration of Anniversary.

The members of Union Tent of Rechabites are preparing to celebrate the twenty-eighth anniversary of the formation of the tent. Mr. J. H. Loveless, a veteran Rechabite, is taking an active part in arranging the program for the complimentary affair, which is announced to take place the evening of June 12, at the hall, 623 Louisiana avenue. He says there will be a literary and musical entertainment and refreshments. Speakers will tell of the early days of Rechabites, and the good the order has accomplished along moral suasion lines.
